

WHY SHOULD YOU CONSIDER SERVICE-LEARNING?

In the 2013 - 2014 academic year...*

90% of students would recommend their service-learning course to other students

97% of students felt supported at their community-service learning site

92% of students felt more motivated to be involved in future community work after service-learning

$1,233,552.68

value of hours contributed

54,730

number of hours contributed

1,988

enrolled students

*Statistics based on 2013-2014 student survey findings. Value of hours contributed calculated using the Independent Sector's "Value of Volunteer Time", https://www.independentsector.org/volunteer_time

For more information about service-learning, visit www.servicelearning.umn.edu

What students are saying...

"It's a great opportunity to go out and take what you learned in the classroom and apply it to the real world."

"It makes you feel really proud of yourself and you receive lots of experience!"

"I believe that every student at the U, regardless of their major, should take a service-learning course to grow as an individual and to grow as a member in a community."

94%

of students said service-learning allowed them to work with people they otherwise wouldn't have worked with 90%

of students said service-learning encouraged critical thinking

73%

of students reported gaining new skills from their service-learning experience, including:

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA